

Enea initiates repurchasing program of own shares

Stockholm, November 16, 2007 – Enea (Nordic Exchange/SmallCap/ ENEA), a world leading provider of network software and services, today announced that it shortly will initiate a repurchasing program of own shares at OMX Nordic Exchange in Stockholm.

Information on the progress is reported via OMX Nordic Exchange in Stockholm, please use the following link:

The purpose of the share repurchase program is to continuously be able to adjust the capital structure of Enea to the financial needs of the company and to enable financing, fully and partly, of acquisitions. Shares will be acquired at OMX Nordic Exchange in Stockholm for a price within the registered share price interval at the time of each transaction.

Enea does not own any Enea shares before the launch of the share repurchase program.

The 2007 Annual General Meeting in Enea AB resolved to authorize the Board during the period until the next Annual General Meeting, to repurchase Enea shares. In support of this decision, the Board of Enea has decided, on October 23, 2007, to acquire a maximum of 18 355 000 shares, an equivalent to five percent of registered shares.

The repurchasing program is handled by Nordea Bank AB.
