

Exchange Notice OMX Nordic Exchange, Copenhagen

21 December 2007.

New round lots for shares and investment certificates

OMX Nordic Exchange, Copenhagen will adjust round lots for 59 Shares and 40 Investment certificates. In addition, round lots for 9 Shares on First North will be adjusted. The new round lots will take effect 27 December 2007.

The changes are due to OMX Nordic Exchange Copenhagen's biannual review of round lots on the basis of price movements.

A round lot is the minimum number of shares/certificates which constitutes an order. A round lot order can help create the so-called spread in the trading system and set a price. OMX Nordic Exchange, Copenhagen aims at a round lot corresponding to approx. DKK 20,000 for OMXC20 shares and approx. DKK 10,000 for other shares and investment certificates. On the regulated marketplace, First North, a round lot is approx. DKK 5,000.

Please notice all orders in the implicated orderbooks will be deleted (flushed) before the market opens in the morning of 27 December.

A list of the new round lots for the shares and investment certificates in question is attached to this exchange notice. An updated list of all round lots for shares and investment certificates will be available on the OMX Nordic Exchange website, <http://www.omxgroup.com/nordicexchange/> from the morning of 27 December 2007.
