Dustin wins major contract with international group

Dustin has won a new contract to deliver clients, smartphones and accessories to a Nordic region based group that has operations worldwide. The estimated value of the contract, which extends over a two-year period, is approximately SEK 100 million per year.

- A contract of this scope with an international player is validation of our attractive product range and our capacity to ensure prompt and reliable deliveries, says Georgi Ganev, President and CEO of Dustin.

The contract is for the Nordic market and will take effect on September 1, 2016.
