Jan Svensson becomes CEO of Rejlers Energitjänster

Rejlers Energitjänster is part of Rejlers' operations in Sweden and has over 30 employees in Motala, Kumla and Karlstad. The company offers various types of energy metering services. Jan Svensson, who worked at Rejlers 2003-2007, is now returning to become CEO of Rejlers Energitjänster.

"It feels really good that Jan is back here at Rejlers. Energy is one of our key growth areas and I am sure that Jan, with his experience and background, will be able to help develop our business in a positive way", says Peter Rejler, president and CEO at Rejlers.

Jan Svensson came to Rejlers when the company acquired Epsilon High Tech in 2003. He worked as a Site Manager at Rejlers in Norrköping / Linköping until 2007 and was part of establishing a new office in Jönköping. Since 2007, Jan Svensson has worked with marketing, management and sales issues for several major industrial companies, both as an employee and in-house. He will assume his new position immediately.
